You Dish boys are doomed.... DirectTV is the place to be for good Hunting Entertainment. All I can say is switch. Initially The Pursuit Channel was going to be on Dish Network but Dish got greedy so the Pursuit Channel fired back by going to DirectTV. Our show is on Thursday night during primetime, Sunday mornings and a few other times. We have an awesome season lined up so you really should switch to DirectTV. Starting in July we will also be on the Sportsmans Channel. Good stuff!!!
